1. Code of Conduct and Professional Behavior

Professional Standards

All employees are expected to maintain the highest standards of professional conduct. This includes treating colleagues, supervisors, and clients with respect and courtesy. Employees should perform their duties with integrity, honesty, and dedication to their work. Any behavior that undermines the workplace environment or company values is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Confidentiality

Employees may have access to confidential company information, including trade secrets, client lists, financial data, and proprietary processes. All such information must be kept strictly confidential during and after employment. Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information may result in immediate termination and legal action.

Dress Code

Employees are expected to dress in a manner appropriate to their position and work environment. Business professional attire is required for client-facing roles. The company reserves the right to determine what constitutes appropriate workplace dress.

2. Attendance and Time Off Policies

Work Schedule

Standard full-time work hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Employees are expected to arrive on time and work their full schedule. Consistent tardiness or absence without proper notification may result in disciplinary action.

Paid Time Off (PTO)

Full-time employees receive 20 days of paid time off annually, which includes vacation days and sick leave. PTO requests should be submitted to your supervisor at least two weeks in advance when possible. The company maintains the right to deny requests during critical business periods. Unused PTO may be carried over to the following year with approval, up to a maximum of 5 days.

Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work due to illness should notify their supervisor as soon as possible. A doctor's note may be required for absences exceeding three consecutive days. Abuse of sick leave may result in disciplinary action.

Company Holidays

The company observes the following paid holidays: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents' Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.

3. Anti-Harassment and Discrimination Policy

Our company is committed to providing a workplace free from harassment and discrimination. We prohibit any form of harassment or discrimination based on protected characteristics.

Protected Characteristics

The company prohibits harassment and discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

Types of Prohibited Conduct

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to: unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, verbal or physical conduct of a sexual or harassing nature, offensive comments or jokes based on protected characteristics, intimidation, hostile behavior, exclusion from work activities, and any other conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Reporting Procedures

Employees who experience or witness harassment or discrimination are encouraged to report the incident immediately to their supervisor, Human Resources, or through the anonymous ethics hotline at 1-800-HR-ETHICS. All reports will be investigated promptly and confidentially to the extent possible. The company prohibits retaliation against anyone who makes a good-faith report.

Investigation and Discipline

The company will investigate all complaints thoroughly. If a violation is substantiated, appropriate corrective action will be taken, up to and including termination of employment. The company will communicate the results of the investigation to all relevant parties.

4. Workplace Safety and Health

The company is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy work environment for all employees. Employees are required to follow all safety protocols and immediately report any unsafe conditions, accidents, or injuries to their supervisor. Failure to comply with safety regulations may result in disciplinary action.

Substance Abuse Policy

The company maintains a substance-free workplace. Employees are prohibited from possessing, using, or being under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol while at work or on company premises. The company reserves the right to conduct drug testing in accordance with applicable laws.

Policy Acknowledgment and Agreement

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received and reviewed this Employee Handbook. I understand that these policies are important guidelines for professional conduct and workplace behavior. I agree to comply with all policies outlined in this handbook and understand that failure to do so may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. I understand that this handbook is not a contract of employment, and employment at this company is at-will, meaning either the employee or the company may terminate employment at any time, for any reason, with or without cause.
